Dear Mr. Forsberg:

I have your letter of 17 April and want to thank you very much for your generous comments about the speech that I made at the Edison Electric Institute Convention.

It is indeed gratifying to learn from you that my talk was so well received and I appreciate your thoughtfulness in writing to me as you did.

With kindest regards.

Sincerely,

Dear Mr. Dulles:

Without question, you brought our Edison Electric Institute Convention to a high point on Wednesday afternoon, and this was indicated not only by the fine attendance, but also by the tremendous interest in your talk.

We are very appreciative of your excellent contribution to our convention.

Sincerely,

Carl J. Forsberg
President
